

Yang Rochelle

China

Rochelle Yang is fine art photographer, visual artist, curator and performing artist. She has received several awards from Chinese Arts Global Award, Fuji Film Portraits Photography Contest, Overseas Youth Excellence Awards and CISAC, France. Besides her passion as an artist, she has curated numerous new media arts exhibitions and was the chair of art gallery for SIGGRAPH Asia. After graduating from Film (BA) and Interactive Telecommunication (MA) from Tisch School of the Arts, New York University, Yang was an art director in advertising and a creative director for new media arts companies in New York and Taipei. After relocation to Hong Kong, she received her PhD degree in Creative Media from the City University of Hong Kong. Currently, she teaches at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. "The Symphony" is a photographic essay of geometric abstraction. The musical interplay of shapes and colors brings a rhythmic sensation. This series of two images harmonize its thematic to suggest a symphonic structure of different movements.

杨宜瑄

NordArt 2017

www.nordart.de

Minimalistische Fotografie: Eine Symphonie der Linien Nr. 1, 2016, Fotografie auf Alu-Dibond, 110 x 150 cm
Minimalist Photography: A Symphony of Lines NO. 1, 2016, photography on alu dibond, 110 x 150 cm