

Marina Chernikova Марина Черникова

Russland/Niederlande/Russia/Netherlands

Marina Chernikova lives in Amsterdam and Moscow. In her ongoing project "Urban Surfing" she investigates the changes in urban existence, caused by the accelerated tempo of city life and the development of new technologies. This results in a fragmented and nonlinear perception of our existence in the urban environment. To visualize this phenomenon documentary and virtual snapshots from different locations and moments are digitally intertwined into one panoramic image – the inner landscape of urban man. Chernikova's videos and prints were shown at: Hermitage, Amsterdam; Institute Valencià d'Art Modern; De Hallen, Haarlem; NCCA, Moscow; Louise Blouin Foundation, London; Rencontres Internationales Paris–Berlin; ZKU, Berlin; WRO Biennale, Breslau; The One Minutes, Venedig Biennale; FiLE, Sao Paulo; Exis, Seoul; Museum Quai Branly, Paris. Collections: The Kolodzei Art Foundation, US; Moscow Museum of Modern Art; National Center for Contemporary Art, Moscow; Multimedia Art Museum, Moscow; Fondo Sandretti, Italy. www.marinachernikova.com
